Pope's Intentions (June 2019)

Evangelization – Priests: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are the most poor.

Sharing the Life of God the Father

Dear brothers and sisters,

I wish a blessed Father's day to all the fathers; and we together thank God the Father on the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, for His fatherhood.

There are two types of attributes to God: communicable and non-communicable.

Non-communicable attributes are true of God and God alone – omniscient, omnipotent, omnipresence, immutable, infinite, transcendent, sovereign, eternal, etc. Communicable attributes are those attributes that are shared by us – merciful, gracious, holy, just, truthful, love, faithful, wise, perfect, etc. God communicates these attributes with us; and we share and communicate in our families.

In the Old Testament, God is portrayed as one who is a harsh, unforgiving, vindictive and punishing God; but Jesus revealed that God the Father is loving and forgiving; slow to anger and rich in mercy. In Christ, we are children of God the Father. He revealed the depth of the Trinitarian mutual love and invites us to follow their example in our families.

A father and son arrived in a small western town looking for an uncle whom they had never seen. Suddenly, the father, pointing across the square to a man who was walking away from them, exclaimed, "There goes my uncle!" His son asked, "How do you know when you have not seen him before?" "Son, I know him because he walks exactly like my father." If we walk in the Spirit, the world should know us by our walk that we are children of God the Father.

As we honor our fathers, let us honor our fathers truly by the way we live our lives; and make our fathers feel proud of our decisions. Let us pray with the fathers today that their dreams for us come true. Remember all the children who grow without their fathers in their lives. Someone said, "It may be hard on some fathers not to have a child, but it is so much harder on a boy or a girl not to have a father." You know it! Happy Father's Day! With prayers and blessings!
Msgr. Xavier

Save a life
Give Blood

Blood Drive: June 23

The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi) is the weekend of June 22/23. As Jesus saves us by shedding his blood, let us save the lives of our brothers and sisters by donating our blood. Carter Blood Care will be at St. Matthew for a Blood Drive on Sunday, June 23, from 8:30 am - 2:30 pm. You may sign up in the foyer the weekend of June 15/16.

*Our deepest condolences to Lee & Laura Davis on the loss of her father, Marion Barrett.
May the Lord grant him eternal rest and comfort to family and friends who share the loss.
You are in our prayers.*
