Pope's Intentions (November)

Communication and Reconciliation: That a spirit of dialogue, encounter and reconciliation emerges in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

Be Occupied; Not Preoccupied

Dear brothers and sisters,
We hear most of the believers talking about the 'end of time' or the '2nd coming'. Jesus shares 3 major signs of the time; but not the time!

1. False Prophets: Christ says in Luke 21:8, "For many will come in my name." The church today is loaded with false prophets, false pastors, and false people who are leading people away from the faith. Jesus tells us "not to follow them." Many claim to be prophets; but when their prophecy fails, they are false prophets. You may be the best Catholic; but if you are preoccupied with several issues and fail to be occupied with 'what needs to be done', that leads to being preoccupied.

2. Fear: The Bible says 365 times "Do not be afraid." Christ says in Luke 21:26 that fearful events will take place; many hearts failing in fear; signs from heaven; the earth will be shaken; famines and pestilences; numerous wars and rumors of war! When has there not been these troubles? This is our daily news. Many felt these were the prophesied end of the world. WW I, WWII, Nostradamus and Jehovah's Witnesses predictions; the end was not yet. Fear has not only gripped America, but the entire world; look at how much we spend on security, people walking around with concealed weapons, and taking precautions against mass shootings. You are preoccupied, not occupied in faith!

3. Failure: Christ says in Luke 21:26 that the powers of the earth will be shaken, things will be falling apart and failing. Jesus talks more on 'failing in faithfulness' than failures in life. Failing to be a witness to Jesus: the Truth, the Way and Life. Tempted to give up on Jesus altogether. We see in our families, our schools, our society, our nation and even in our church where the members need to be 'faithful and not fail' the Lord Jesus. Be occupied today and not preoccupied about tomorrow or the end!

My prayers and blessings! Msgr. Xavier

Why do we pray for the dead?

According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, the clearest Bible reference about prayers for the dead is from the Second Book of Maccabees. When soldiers were preparing the bodies of their slain comrades for burial they discovered they were wearing amulets taken from a pagan temple which violated the law of Deuteronomy, so they prayed that God would forgive the sin these men had committed.

The New Testament echoes this notion in the second letter of Timothy when Paul prays for someone who died named Onesiphorus, saying: "May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church also has something to say about prayers for the dead, stating: "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (1030).
