3. Baptism: First Step to Hope

Dear brothers and sisters,
 I would like to wish you and your family a prosperous and healthy New Year with every blessing needed in your life.

We celebrate 'The Baptism of Our Lord.' At His baptism, Jesus, the voice of the Father, and the descending the Holy Spirit confirmed Jesus' identity and mission. It is a first step for Jesus to begin His mission-journey. (Lk. 4:18; Is. 61:1)

For us, baptism is the beginning of a Christian life and a new life in Jesus Christ. It is a source of hope that comes from the One Hope of the World. It is a hope for a life that looks to God's glory, and a hope in a resurrection that Christ has promised.

Baptism is a way of being infused with God's love, and a way of being part of God's eternal plan; a way of leaving behind the old sinful self, and of being resurrected into a life of righteousness and hope. It gives us believers a share in the Church's mission of evangelization. It empowers believers to bring God's love to all.

Just as a wedding ring represents a commitment to a spouse, baptism symbolizes a commitment to follow Christ. Both are seen as important milestones marking a change in status and identity. Several years ago a lady said, "Jesus saved me at my baptism from the life of ease, luxury, and selfishness. It took much grace to save me from my 'easy chair'."

Our Baptismal promises are "promises," not wishful thinking. It made us sons/daughters of God. Let us be faithful to them. Do you know the date of your baptism, Godparents and the church? May the Lord, who has begun the good work in you, bring it to completion.

Wishing you a Happy Journey of Hope! Msgr. Xavier

1549: The Gutenberg Bible, published by Johannes Gutenberg, is the first published Bible.

Catholic Schools

Reverend Ronald J. Nuzzi, Ph.D. Director, ACE RISE (Renewing Identity, Strengthening Evangelization) offers ten reasons why Catholic schools still have an important place in our world.

1. An Incarnational View of the World: Catholic School students learn that God is present and active in their lives and in the world. They learn to recognize the "footprints of God" in their daily experiences, especially in the midst of life's challenges. They develop a sense of "sacramental awareness". They see the signs of God's love around them, and become instruments of God's grace in their own neighborhoods, communities and the world. In an incarnational view of the world, there is no such thing as a secular subject as all learning helps to develop and bring to full bloom that image of God that is in each person.

2. Immersion in the Paschal Mystery

Our lives are a series of small and not so small dyings and risings. In union with the Paschal Mystery, we realize that there is redemptive power in suffering, and in the power of the cross. In it lies the answer to the mystery of all of life's successes and failures. In the experience of the Paschal Mystery, we also realize the need for community. Like Jesus, we encounter our own Simon of Cyrenes to help us along the way. Wins and losses on the athletic field, As and Fs in class, and laughter and tears in our lives are the way we participate in Jesus' dying and rising. to be continued....
