3. Hope to Those Who Have Lost Hope

Dear brothers and sisters,
We are pilgrims of Hope! Our journey can be challenging with the weight of struggles and disappointments. Yet, in the midst of despair, God always says "I will not keep silent, I'll not remain quiet." "I have not forgotten you." Hope is assured. This promise is personal.

We see another moment where hope seemed lost. The hope of the celebration was about to crumble; and it seems like there's nothing that can be done. But Jesus steps in, at the intervention of Mother Mary and He performs His first miracle, turning water into wine. Hope is restored!

God is committed to your restoration. No matter how dark the days, no matter how long the wait, God has not forgotten you. He has a plan to restore you and to bring joy and purpose into your life once again. However we need to do our part!

An event in UK: Martin Pistorius was just 12 years old when a mysterious illness began slowly robbing him of his ability to walk, talk, or communicate on any level. Ended up in "lock-in-syndrome." Only his mother said, "Martin just kept going, just kept going." Martin remained frozen in his body; he could hear everyone; slowly he regained movements to his members in his late 20s, got a job, married Joanna, etc. His mother and father encouraged, gave him the hope. Hope is a gift, give it to those who have lost it.

We are called to be bearers of hope in the midst of adversity. When you feel hopeless, look at how you can serve others with gifts given to you. Your gift, no matter how small you think it is, can bring hope to someone else. So, take heart today, for God is with you, and He will restore your joy. Give hope, and you will never lose hope.

Wishing you a Happy Journey of Hope! Msgr. Xavier

January 21st - Respect Life

The doctrine of the sanctity of life: that bodily human life is an intrinsic good and that it is always impermissible to kill an innocent human. Abortion and euthanasia are often assumed to violate the doctrine. Please read the Bible: Genesis 1:26; 9:6; Jeremiah 1:5 & Psalm 139; and many more.

We celebrated Christmas a month ago. Mary (one month pregnant) visited Elizabeth (6 months pregnant); both the babies from their wombs communicated - joy, life, message.... Let us respect and pray for everyone from conception to Natural death.

The Tower of Babel: A Tale of Pride and Division

The world was full of people who spoke the same language and lived together in harmony. These people were advanced and ambitious, so they decided to build a tower that would reach the heavens. They thought that by doing so, they could make a name for themselves and show the world what they were capable of.

As they began building the tower, they imagined the glory they would receive once it was completed. They thought that they would become so great that even God would be impressed by their achievements. But God saw their pride and decided to teach them a lesson. - to be continued...

National Bible Sunday - Jan. 26th

"God's Word: The Breath of New Life."
Pope Francis set the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary time as "Word of God Sunday."

Let us celebrate! "The Bible is the most widely distributed book, but it's also perhaps the one most covered in dust because it is not held in our hands". Let us read it daily. Timeline:

1400 B.C. The first part of the bible is written as the Jewish sacred text, Torah.

32 A.D. Jesus & His disciples studied it in worship in their houses and synagogues to preach, study, and pray .

45 A.D. 2nd part of the bible [New Testament] by the disciples
1549: The Gutenberg Bible, published by Johannes Gutenberg, is the first published Bible.

The Bible has been read and lived 3424 years.

"If you don't know the Bible, you don't know Jesus"
- St. Jerome.

Catholic Schools

Reverend Ronald J. Nuzzi, Ph.D. Director, ACE RISE (Renewing Identity, Strengthening Evangelization) offers ten reasons why Catholic schools still have an important place in our world.

1. An Incarnational View of the World: Catholic School students learn that God is present and active in their lives and in the world. They learn to recognize the "footprints of God" in their daily experiences, especially in the midst of life's challenges. They develop a sense of "sacramental awareness." They see the signs of God's love around them, and become instruments of God's grace in their own neighborhoods, communities and the world. In an incarnational view of the world, there is no such thing as a secular subject as all learning helps to develop and bring to full bloom that image of God that is in each person.

2. Immersion in the Paschal Mystery

Our lives are a series of small and not so small dyings and risings. In union with the Paschal Mystery, we realize that there is redemptive power in suffering, and in the power of the cross. In it lies the answer to the mystery of all of life's successes and failures. In the experience of the Paschal Mystery, we also realize the need for community. Like Jesus, we encounter our own Simon of Cyrenes to help us along the way. Wins and losses on the athletic field, As and Fs in class, and laughter and tears in our lives are the way we participate in Jesus' dying and rising. to be continued....
